

Introduction to our Advent series

The Advent Season is typically associated with a season of joyful anticipation. As children we may remember the countdown beginning, perhaps with an Advent calendar with a chocolate for every day. Decorations and lights come out of the closets and a whole new repertoire of music finds its way into our ears in anticipation of a season of joyful festivities. We look forward to celebrating the birth of Jesus. While this year's pandemic restrictions may keep us all closer to our homes than we would like, preparations for Christmas are nonetheless appropriate.

This year's Advent theme, "On the Road . . ." conveys not only a contemplative anticipation but it elicits a sense of movement. It then begs the question: What are we moving towards? Does the movement end at Christmas? The birth of Jesus, Emmanuel—God with us, opens for us a new era of God journeying with us and we journeying with God along the road of faith and faithfulness. In preparation for such a journey, we begin with opening ourselves in readiness to new understandings and a willingness to repent and leave behind attitudes and priorities that obstruct our movement. This opens us to visions of the possibility of restoration and justices in our world as we finally approach the manger with the full revelation of the child. Such revelation indeed calls for rejoicing on Christmas Day. How will this revelation guide our steps into a new year as we continue our journey on the road? In the midst of this year's pandemic, let's allow prayerful contemplation to prepare us for the revelation of God's love manifest in the child. And then, individually and as a congregation, let's consider how we can continue to make this love manifest in our world, guided on this road by the radiance of Epiphany and Emmanuel – God with us!

Wild and lone the prophet's voice – STS #8

Wild and lone the prophet's voice echoes through the desert still, calling us to make a choice, bidding us to do God's will:
"Turn from sin and be baptized;
cleanse your heart and mind and soul.
Quitting all the sin you prized, yield your life to God's control."

"Bear the fruit repentance sows: lives of justice, truth, and love.
Trust no other claim than those; set your heart on things above.
Soon the Lord will come in pow'r, burning clean the threshing floor:
then will flames the chaff devour; wheat alone shall fill God's store."

With such preaching start and bold John proclaimed salvation near, and his timeless warnings hold words of hope to all who hear.
So we dare to journey on, led by faith through ways untrod, till we come at last like John – to behold the Lamb of God.

Now the Heavens Start to Whisper – Voices Together #237

Now the heavens start to whisper, as the veil is growing thin.
Earth from slumber wakes to listen to the stirring faint within:
seed of promise, deeply planted,
child to spring from Jesse's stem!
Like the soil beneath the frostline, hearts grow soft to welcome him.

Heavy clouds that block the moonlight now begin to drift away.
Diamond brilliance through the darkness shines the hope of coming day.
Christ, the morning star of splendor, gleams within a world grown dim.
Heaven's ember fans to fullness;
hearts grow warm to welcome him.

Christ, eternal sun of justice, Christ, the rose of wisdom's seed,
come to bless with fire and fragrance hours of yearning,
hurt and need.
In the lonely, in the stranger, in the outcast, hid from view;
child who comes to grace the manger,
teach our hearts to welcome you.

- If you have pictures of how you are celebrating Advent, please send them to this email address, and they will be added to the gallery.

- An order for Rejoice! Devotional guides will be made by the end of this month. If you have not been receiving it and would like to start, please let Lori Hiebert know soon. The cost for the year (4 quarterly guides) is $48, payable to AMC in whatever form you use.

- Thank you to all of you who have rediscovered the alternative ways of donating to AMC since we've had to cancel in-person worship. Our audio services have been great to keep us connected to AMC, but it's not the same as seeing each other. Our pastors and a few others are working to set up the facility to video record our services, which will add to our connection. Thankfully a Grant will help offset costs, but we still have our regular expenses, and are currently $9,000 into our Line of Credit, so please give generously. Options to give are online through Access Credit Union, (using your 7-digit phone number as your account number), e-transfer to amchurchdonations@gmail.com, or a cheque mailed it to AMC, Box 1237, Altona, ROG 0B0. Thank you.
