Artist Statement – Margruite Krahn

In the fall of 2020 violinist Karl Stobbe invited me to create an art piece for Heinrich Bieber's Passacaglia. This is the final piece from Bieber's Mystery Sonata's and is an Ode to the Guardian Angels. Karl dedicated this piece to all our front line workers during this time of pandemic.

A couple of things to note which may help to understand what is happening in the painting as I interpret the music and its intent. Murmurations- starlings swoop and swirl in formations as they gather towards dusk. This coming together distracts any predators before they settle for the night. The Red-winged black birds were flocking by the thousands along the Buffalo Creek this past September. I happened to see a Red tailed hawk soaring above the black birds, but as fast as it came, it disappeared. The white cut- out birds represents the feminine, and protect the flock from the predator.

A special thank you to Al Schritt, and to Lori Dueck, Simon and Rosie for joining me in this venture.

Vision

God calls us to be followers of Jesus Christ and by the power of the Holy Spirit to grow as communities of grace, joy and peace so that God's healing and hope flow through us to the world.

Purpose

We seek to know God through Jesus, the center of our faith.

We seek to follow God in community, through worship, fellowship, and interpreting the Scripture from a Christ-centered point of view, in the Anabaptist tradition.

We seek to obey God by working toward peace and reconciliation, in the spirit of Jesus, reconciling all people to God, to each other, and to the world around them.

Deep calls to Deep Lent 2021

The world of isolation and virtual connection has become our reality. Suddenly the wilderness of Lent is all too real, as we are stripped of our usual surroundings, activities, and circles of relationship. In these months we along with the world experience both deep grief and invitations to a new spaciousness of time, as we needed to release so much of what usually fills our lives. The Scriptures for this season of Lent are filled with stories, songs, and promises that calls us to identify what is essential, what really matters, who we are at our core, and what God asks (and doesn't ask) of us. In the Scriptures and the traditions of Lent, we find a scrubbing away of the excess to get to the core of our Christian journeys and of ourselves. Lent 2021 becomes a season for renewed questioning of what we have discovered to be the deepest and truest parts of our lives and our journeys with God.

The call to go deeper can be frightening or overwhelming when we feel we are not ready and do not know what we will find. We keep much of our pain in our depths. The theme "Deep calls to deep" (Psalm 42:7) arouses in us God's calling out from a deeper place than the areas that we might think we can plan and control. God's call echoes in a deep place within us; a place where the words of love spoken to Jesus at his baptism dwell: "You are my Beloved; with you I am well pleased." might be lived deeply throughout Lent.

~ Adapted from "Deep calls to deep" Leader Winter 2020-21

Vol. 18 No. 2 p. 36

The Lenten theme for 2021 is DEEP CALLS TO DEEP.

The worship committee has chosen to use paintings as part of the visual enrichment for this theme. The two abstract paintings are by a Chilean woman, Lucy Regueme. She has entitled the green painting, "Land is our livelihood" and the orange one, "When sharing the bread with the hungry, your light will shine in the darkness".

Margruite Krahn's paintings are titled: Experimental Lakes, Ontario - 2006, Red Pine Stand, Dryberry Lake, Ontario - 2000, I travel along a path that is unknown to me, I travel between fear and hope... - 2018

Thanks to Harry Wiens for contributing four of his paintings and to Margruite Krahn for contributing the one.

Deep in the changing sky: Called to deep wisdom

Prelude

Words of Welcome

Prayer of Invocation VT # 861

Seeking Wisdom in God's Creation

(adapted from Psalm 19)

One: The heavens are telling the glory of God;

And the firmament proclaims God's handiwork.

Many: Day to day pours forth speech,
And night to night declares knowledge.

One: There is no speech

Yet the voice goes out through all the earth,
And their words to the end of the world.

Many: In the heavens you set a tent for the sun . . .

Its rising is from the end of the heavens,
Its circuit to the end of them;
Nothing is hid from its heat.

One: The law of the Lord is perfect . . . sure . . .

Clear . . . true and righteous.

The fear of the Lord is pure.

Many: God, clear us from hidden faults;
Teach us to trust you.

All: Let the words and meditations of our hearts

Be acceptable to you, O Lord,

Our rock and redeemer.

We call out to you,

As you call us to deeper wisdom.

Prayer of Confession and Assurance

Many: Deep calls to deep.

We call to you from the depths of our hearts.

One: We confess when we have settled into sameness,
Forgetting the rhythms of the heavens,
Ignoring the rhythms of justice.
Into the eyes of a neighbor,
Into your Word that still lives.

Silence

Deep calls to deep.

You call to us from the depth of your love.

Many: Calling us to deep wisdom.

We come to you, God.
