Pray for strength inspiration and listening ears. If you wish to connect with their schedule, contact jhanson@mennonitechurch.ca.

- Prayer for congregations with Myanmar connections

Please continue to pray for people in Myanmar who experience violence and displacement. Chin Mennonite church leaders in Canada report increasing unrest and violence in many of their home areas, including deaths in their families. May we as their Canadian family reach out in love and support at this very difficult time.

If you would like to add or remove any prayer requests, please contact the church office.

"remember the children", a sculpture by Ken Loewen, was created to acknowledge the findings of Indigenous children's graves and the trauma experienced at residential schools.

From The Pastor: A Season of Learning

In June of 2015, the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada (TRC) released its final report detailing the history and ongoing legacy of the Indian Residential School system in Canada that operated until 1996. The TRC's final report shares over 6,000 Survivor and witness accounts of the system; it outlines the history of the system, its ongoing impacts on Indigenous Peoples today, and it calls attention to the challenge of Reconciliation in Canada moving forward. One major aspect of the TRC's final report is the 94 Calls to Action that offer a roadmap to Reconciliation for Canada to follow. The Honorable Murray Sinclair (Senator ret.) Chief Commissioner of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada said of the 94 Calls to action.

"My challenge to you is to read the 94 Calls To Action of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission Report and pick one that you can work on, that you understand, and that you support - and make it happen. This is not a spectator sport. We need you to be able to bring reconciliation to a reality in this country... we need everyone's participation and everyone's willingness to grow."

As people of faith, reconciliation is at the heart of who we are. "We seek to obey God by working towards peace and reconciliation in the Spirit of Jesus" is one of the guiding principles at AMC. Reconciliation is not a just Canadian issue. Reconciliation is not just an aboriginal matter. Reconciliation is the method by which the God of the universe creates and recreates from an abundance of love, mercy, and justice. Reconciliation is the means by which faith driven hope turns our words into action. Reconciliation is a plan that is big enough not only for Canada but a plan that is big enough to fit the entire universe. When Sinclair says "Reconciliation is not a spectator sport." he is in lock and step with all who profess to be Christian. Sinclair's call is for all Canadians to adopt a willingness to grow. A willingness to grow is also part of what it means to be a people of faith. The Psalmist asks of God, "Show me your ways, Lord, teach me your paths. Guide me in your truth and teach me, for you are God my Savior, and my hope is in you all day long."

This fall our theme is A Season of Learning. The revelation of the many children who died scared and alone at residential schools, who were buried in unmarked graves and forgotten, has stirred our nation. Our collective reaction has opened space for all to seek truth in a spirit of reconciliation. We as God's people at AMC also desire to enter this space. To focus our attention in A Season of Learning that we might growing in wisdom and understanding is just a small part of the overall work of God in this world. Our prayer in this season of learning comes from the Psalmist, "Show us your ways, O Lord, teach us your paths. Guide us in your truth and teach us, for you are God our Savior, and our hope is in you all day long."

God's Power in Creation Job 12:7-13

Leader: But ask the animals,

People: and they will teach you,

Leader: or the birds in the sky,

People: and they will tell you;

Leader: or speak to the earth, and it will teach you,

People: or let the fish in the sea inform you.

Leader: Which of all these does not know that the hand of the Lord has done this?

People: In God's hand is the life of every creature and the breath of all mankind.

Leader: Does not the ear test words as the tongue tastes food?

People: Is not wisdom found among the aged? Does not long life bring understanding?

TRC Call to Action #49

We call upon all religious denominations and faith groups who have not already done so to repudiate concepts used to justify European sovereignty over Indigenous lands and peoples, such as the Doctrine of Discovery and terra nullius.

Unmarked Graves

The voices of the children cry.
Their anguish echoes on the canyons of time.
Alone but not abandoned,
Torn from the arms of love,
Unprotected but not forgotten.
Hurting but cherished by tender hearts.
"Come home," whispers the wind,
To the woodland tipis:
The earth: the floor,
The walls: the sky,
Down trails to the Spirit washed
With the flow of eternal tears.

I wrote this poem so that the children will know that their parents did not abandon them. The floor of the tipi represents the earth on which we live, the walls represent the sky, and the poles represent the trails that extend from the earth to the spirit world.
